Pharma Tech Outlook Names TRI Top Quality Assurance Services Provider

TRI is pleased to announce that Pharma Tech Outlook has named TRI among the Top 10 Quality Assurance Service Companies 2021. The award distinguishes companies at the forefront of providing Quality Assurance services and transforming businesses. With TRI's technical expertise, management experience, and operational framework, clinical trial sponsors can develop and review their own Quality Management programs. A focus on Quality Management helps facilitate effective clinical research implementation, verify data accuracy, and promote a constant state of readiness for an external audit or regulatory inspection.

Pharma Tech Outlook is a monthly publication for industry-leading contributors to share experiences, ideas, and techniques with each other and the larger scientific community. The magazine contributes to transforming innovation into technologies and services in the Life Sciences.
